LOCAL.

Mr. Wm. Rosen, an old citizen of this country died at Fairhaven, this week, at 80 years of age.

Mrs. A. J. Swinerton is quite sick at her home, near Bolivar.

W. R. Soloman with his troupe of trained dogs gave one performance in Bolivar on Tuesday night.

Rev. E. B. McNeil preached to large congregations last Sunday morning and night, at the Baptist church.

Rev. W. M. Norment will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Bolivar next Sunday night.

Mrs. Avent, an estimable lady of Hickory Valley died at her residence in that place last week after a protracted illness.

Capt. A. T. McNeal received on Wednesday, with the compliments of W. P. Ramsey, now a Boss Park, Idaho, a large Indian pipe of peace, with tobacco pouch, waist belt, etc., of buckskin, handsomely trimmed in beads.

We announce the name of Mr. T. M. Newsom a candidate for Register in this issue of the Bulletin. Mr. Newsom is a good citizen and a clever man, and if elected to the office to which he aspires, he will give his undivided and most careful attention to its duties. He is a native of the county, and is deservedly popular. See the announcement.

A negro named Bradford, who lives at Toone, attempted to board a freight train for the purpose of stealing a ride south, on Wednesday, and fell beneath the wheels of a car. His left thigh was crushed and the flesh on his right thigh badly torn. He will probably die.

Richard Coates, the little afflicted grandson of Mr. John Coates, died at the residence of the latter last Friday night. The deceased was a quiet boy and bore his great suffering with patience. The remains were buried in the country on Saturday.

The first snow-bound occurred at Wetago, Kansas, one hundred miles West of Kansas City. Here we remained two days and nights without anything to eat save the lunch we started with from home.

After this we were enabled to travel on our way one hundred and twenty-five miles, to Brooklyn, a small place, and here we remained four days, but fortunately we were able to obtain something to eat at this place by depositing 75 cents with the station boss. Then our third and last place was Ellisville, one hundred miles from the place just mentioned. Here we remained seven days and were treated nicely, one meal a day, and if necessary to eat, we could do so by depositing with the railroad fare. Then at the expiration of seven days we came on to our destination without further trouble. Though we had a hard trip, it was pleasant, for many friends were made. The scenery as we crossed over the Rocky Mountains was grand, and for the first time in life I wished that I were an artist. In crossing this mountain I passed through my first snow-shed. Some of them were many miles in length—more than ten times as long as any tunnel you would pass through in going from Bolivar to Louisville.

I shall not write more now but in my next will give you an account of my first appearance among the Indians.
